NEWARK WINS STATE OKEY TO COMPLETE NEW SCHOOL PLANT

Final approval for the construction of the second half of the new Newark Elementary School was granted Wednesday by the State Allocation Board.

J. I. MacGregor, district superintendent, said yesterday that the district's request for $180,000 to assist in the construction of the remainder of the school plant had been approved in full.

He was informed that $17,502 would be made available immediately to cover the cost of surveys, plans and testing of materials. The total amount will be made available to the district when the plans are completed and the bids for construction have been approved.

The state board approved the construction of units to house seven classrooms, a multi-purpose room to serve as a combination cafeteria and auditorium, an arts and crafts room, a teachers room, a stage and necessary subsidiary facilities, and necessary furniture for the above facilities.

MacGregor said that the $180,000, when added to the funds made available to the district through the recent bond issue, should cover the estimated $232,365 cost of construction of the remainder of the school plant.

George Ellinger, Oakland, architect for the new school, will be instructed to begin immediately to make the final drawings of the new units. MacGregor expressed hope that the plant could be completed by the time the school reopens next fall, or shortly thereafter.

SPECIAL LEGISLATION

He said that the wing housing the seven additional classrooms will be constructed directly behind the present classroom wing. The auditorium will be erected in front of the present kindergarten playground area, facing Cherry Road.

The funds were made available to the local district at a much earlier date because of the recent emergency legislation passed at the special session of the state legislature.

LAST CHANCE FOR NILES CUB SCOUTS

One of the most important Pack meetings of the year will be held by the Niles Cub Scouts next Friday, October 27. At this time all Cubs of last year who have not already done so will have their last chance to re-register. Thus they are urged by Cubmaster Frank Crossman to be sure to attend this meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock at the Niles school.

It will also be an award night, so parents and friends are likewise urged to attend.

Bob-cat pins and year stars will be presented.

Cubmaster Crossman is also stressing the need for more den mothers. Any women in the community who are interested, may contact him.

TONIGHT'S GAME WILL BE AIRED

The varsity football game between the Washington Huskies and the Beliarmine Bells of San Jose, to be played on the Centerville field tonight (Friday), will be broadcast over Radio Station KSJO of San Jose.

Here to do the play-by-play broadcasting will be Bob Reel, assisted by Norman Paul, commentator.

The broadcast will be recorded and will be broadcast immediately following the broadcast of the University of San Francisco-San Jose State game, at approximately 10:30 p.m. This will afford the spectators and the players an opportunity to hear the game after play has ended.

47 DRAFTEES WILL LEAVE THIS MONTH FOR ARMED FORCES

Manuel W. Lewis, Centerville, member of Selective Service Board No. 54, Hayward, which serves this area, said yesterday that 47 Southern Alameda County men will be inducted into the armed forces on October 27.

Lewis stated that regulations prohibit the announcement of the names of the men prior to their actual induction but stated that there would probably be five or six Washington Township men included in the group.

The group of 47 represents the Board's quota of inductees for October, and no more calls are expected until November.

The group will be the second to be called into service from this area by Board No. 54.

On September 27 the board inducted 43 men into the armed forces. Six of that month's quota were from Washington Township, representing Irvington, Newark, Centerville and Niles.

In the meantime orders to report for pre-induction physical examinations are being mailed to young men under 26 years of age in this area.

Lewis pointed out that youths desiring to enlist in one of the branches of the armed forces must do so before receiving their pre-induction physical notices. Once they have received the orders to report for a physical examination they can no longer be accepted for enlistment.

THRONG JOINS IN PRAYER FOR PEACE

A crowd estimated at 3,000 gathered at the novitiate of the Sisters of the Holy Family at Mission San Jose last Sunday to witness the enthronement of the statue of Our Lady of Fatima and to join in praying for world peace.

The Rev. John Leal, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Mission San Jose, blessed the statue and it was carried in a procession from the church to the grounds of the novitiate where it was enthroned.

Inside the beautiful grounds of the novitiate the throng joined in the recitation of the rosary and singing the hymns in reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the salvation of souls, the conversion of Russia and peace for the world. The sermon was delivered by Father Leal.

The statue was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Perry and son, Edwin, of San Jose in appreciation of the work of the Sisters of the Holy Family among the Portuguese people of the Five Wounds Church, San Jose.

Ornate candlesticks were donated by H. R. Bettencourt and family and the crown for the Blessed Mother by Miss Maria Ribeiro, both gifts in memory of Monsignor Henrique A. Ribeiro.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

J. C. Gregory, 19-year-old soldier injured recently in the Korean fighting, is spending a 30-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gregory of Irvington.

The young soldier will report to the army hospital at Vallejo at the termination of his furlough to undergo an operation for the removal of shrapnel.

SUPERVISORS OFFER ALTERNATIVES TO TRACT DEVELOPERS

Representatives of the T. R. Bechtel Company appeared before the Alameda County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday and were presented with several optional plans, one of which they must accept if they are to get the clearance from the board to begin construction of Tareyton Village.

Construction in the $6,000,000 subdivision at Decoto has been delayed since June while the company has been negotiating with county, city and district officials in an attempt to solve its sanitation and drainage problems.

ALTERNATIVES LISTED

By unanimous decision the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday offered the following alternatives on the sewage issue: The tract can annex to the Decoto Sanitary District; contract with the Decoto Sanitary District; contract with the city of Hayward, or build a plant of its own and operate it under terms of a contract with the supervisors.

Under the latter condition, Bechtel would be required to execute a contract with the supervisors, put up a bond and agree to construct a disposal plant meeting the approval of state and county health officials. The bond would not be less than the estimated cost of such a plant, estimated by Bechtel's attorneys at $75,000.

ACTION BY NOVEMBER 1

In outlining these terms the board set a precedent in providing an alternative that would allow the Bechtel firm to build and operate its own sewage disposal plant, subject to publicly controlled rate conditions.

At the same time the county upheld its decision in refusing to condemn property outside the tract for sewage and drainage easements.

Company officials told the supervisors that they will prepare a new subdivision map utilizing one of the recommended alternatives and will submit it to the board within the next two weeks, or before October 31, for final action.

STRIKE SETTLED AT STEEL PLANT

A strike of six days duration at the Pacific States Steel Corporation's plant at Niles was terminated at midnight Wednesday and all crews reported back on the job yesterday.

The walkout was called last Thursday by Local 3367, United Steel Workers, C.I.O. Officials of the union claimed that the corporation owners had refused a year-long plea to install washrooms and toilets at the open hearth furnace section of the plant. They said that the 65 men employed in that section of the plant found it necessary to walk nearly half a mile to wash room facilities. They asked that interdepartmental transportation be furnished by the management until the sanitary facilities are installed.

Negotiations, held throughout the week, resulted in the company agreeing to provide transportation between departments until showers and locker rooms can be constructed at the open hearth department.

PEERLESS BOOSTS LOCAL BUS FARES

The State Public Utilities Commission on Wednesday granted a rate increase to Peerless Stages, Inc., to become effective November 7.

The increase will boost fares from 25 per cent for short hauls to 45 per cent for longer distances.

Commute fares will jump about 40 per cent. Individual monthly and family commute tickets will be replaced by 20-ride fares.

The boost is expected to increase annual passenger revenue about $75,000.

The difference between the percentage increase to customers and the expected 15 per cent annual gain to the company was explained by the company expecting to lose 20 per cent of its passenger traffic because of rate increases.

Under the new rates the one-way Oakland to San Jose fare, now 90 cents, goes to $1.15; the round trip from $1.80 to $2.10.

The increase covers operation between Oakland, San Jose, Santa Cruz, Palo Alto and all intermediate points.

4 IRVINGTON BOYS ADMIT BURGLARIES; LOOT IS RECOVERED

Four Irvington teenage boys were picked up by sheriff's deputies early Tuesday morning, and under questioning, admitted to numerous counts of burglary.

The four boys led the deputies to hiding places where they had concealed the loot taken from the Edw. L. Rose Store and the Krueger Dry Goods Store in Irvington.

The loot, valued at from $300 to $400, included sporting goods and clothing. It had been hidden under the Maple Hall Skating Rink, and in culverts on High Street. Some of the stolen items were also found at the homes of the boys.

The boys were picked up for questioning when one of them was found wearing some of the stolen items. They have been turned over to juvenile authorities and are in custody at the juvenile detention home.

Entrance to the Rose Store was gained by removing a portion of an exterior wall. The Krueger Store was entered by means of forcing a rear window.

Most of the loot from the two stores was recovered by sheriff's deputies.

LOCAL AVIATOR WINS AIR MEDAL

Ensign Roland Bendel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel of Niles, has received an award for action against the Korean Reds as a fighter-pilot of a Corsair, it was disclosed this week by Navy headquarters.

Bendel was presented the air medal by Rear Admiral E. C. Ewen aboard the "Philippine Sea," an aircraft carrier .

LOCAL BOY ESCAPES INJURY IN SHIP BLAST

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Woods of Irvington received a letter last Friday from their son, Earl, telling them that he escaped injury when his ship was damaged recently.

This ship, the U.S.S. Mansfield, struck a mine in the waters off Korea two weeks ago.

NEW DRAFT LAW EFFECTS BUT ONE LOCAL DOCTOR

With but one exception, none of the physicians and dentists of Washington Township were effected by the draft registration held Monday under the nation's new doctor-draft law.

The one local doctor who is eligible to be drafted is Dr. Conrad March of Irvington. Dr. March, who has been associated with Dr. E. M. Grimmer in Irvington for the past four months, is subject to call to active duty under the new draft law. However, he has volunteered for duty with the navy and expects to receive his orders around the first of the year.

All of the other local doctors and dentists are well down on the categories of piorities which the military services have set up as a standard method of recalling men to active duty.

First calls will be for reserve specialists trained at government expense who never saw active duty.

Next will be men who took the training at government expense, but who saw some service after the training. Those having the least service will be drafted first in this group.

The third and last group to be called to active duty consists of reserve officers generally.

The township's four dentists who saw active duty with the armed forces during World War II, Dr. E. M. Grimmer Jr., Centerville; Dr. Gene Manning, Centerville; Dr. T. C. Wilson, Niles, and Dr. Howard Buschke, Newark, have all served more than two years and are not subject to call until the reservists in all other categories have been called.

A survey of physicians of the township who served during World War II revealed this week that they all have sufficient months of service to place them in a low enough category that they are not subject to call, under the present system, unless the draft reaches proportions nearing total mobilization.

The doctors contacted included: Dr. J. Merle Buehler, Centerville; Dr. Robert Fisher, Niles; Dr. E. C. Grau, Niles; Dr. John O'Connor, Newark, and Dr. G. J. Romito, Centerville.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE LAGS HERE

"The current Community Chest fund-raising campaign is bogging down in several of the communities of Washington Township," Mrs. Stella Benbow, campaign chairman, revealed this week.

Mrs. Benbow paid a special tribute to Mrs. Wanda Leal, Irvington chairman, and her crew of workers, and Mrs. Bruce Michael and John Souza, co-chairmen at Warm Springs, revealing that those two communities had exceeded the collections made last year.

She said that workers at Decoto, Mission San Jose and Alviso have reported approximately 90 per cent of last year's total raised thus far in the campaign.

"Newark, Niles, Centerville and Alvarado are far below former years in the amount of contributions received to date," Mrs. Benbow said.

Sheriff Calls Meeting Here for Civil Defense

Sheriff H. P. (Jack) Gleason has called a mass meeting of Chamber of Commerce members and other interested persons of Washington Township to be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at the auditorium of the high school for the presentation of a civil defense program for this area.

Sheriff Gleason will be here to conduct the meeting and to outline the entire civil defense program which he desires to be carried out in Washington Township.

After the sheriff has outlined his program and distributed information bulletins to the group, each community will then be expected to select a director and set up its own defense program.

Sheriff Gleason, in announcing the meeting, pointed out that this meeting and civil defense program should not be confused with his Sheriff's Reserve Force, which is now in the process of being formed here. He said that they are two entirely separate functions.

He said that the civil defense program, which will be outlined at the November 1 meeting, deals basically with air raid warning service; shelter protection; warden service; mutual aid and mobile support between communities; health services; welfare services; engineering services; transportation; communications and civilian auxiliaries to military activities.

Chambers of Commerce of the township are being notified to have as many of their members present at the meeting as possible.

LOCAL LODGE TO OBSERVE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

A golden anniversary with a solemn high mass at the Holy Ghost Church in Centerville on October 29 will be celebrated by the Sociedade Portguesa Rainha Santa Isabel, Council No. 4, with a luncheon following at the International Kitchen.

Three charter members who will participate are Mrs. Mary Swartz of Niles, Mrs. Theresa Lavada of Irvington and Mrs. Leonora Nunes of Newark.

Mrs. Mary Brazil Sr. of Oakland, charter member of Council No. 1, will be a special guest.

Father Charles O'Connor, pastor of the Holy Ghost Church, and Father José Lima, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church at Patterson, will conduct the religious services.

Mass will be said at 10 a.m. and the luncheon is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. More than 100 invited guests will attend. According to Mrs. Mary L. S. George, general chairman, final arrangements will be made at a meeting of the lodge at Parish Hall in Centerville on October 25.

A program of entertainment is being arranged by Mrs. Geraldine Rogers and Miss Marlene Dias. Mrs. Carrie Peixotto is president of the council and Mrs. Mercedes Brazil, the secretary.

WARM SPRINGS TO HAVE FIRE HOUSE

The contract for the new Warm Springs fire house was awarded to L. M. Potts of Newark, at a bid of $9,246. Potts was the lowest of three bidders.

The announcement was made by the Board of Supervisors to the secretary of the fire commissioners, Orville Leitch.

According to Leitch, work on the firehouse will get under way immediately. It will be located right across the street from the present location.

SPECIAL MEETING OF Y.M.I. CALLED FOR TONIGHT

A special meeting of the Lady of Fatima Council, Y.M.I., of Mission San Jose, has been called for tonight (Friday) at the I.D.E.S. Hall in Mission.

President Walter Zbyzenski, who called the meeting, announced this week that the guest speaker will be Grand Secretary Frank J. Stagnaro of San Francisco.

NINE-YEAR-OLD NILES GIRL WINS REGISTER CONTEST

A nine-year-old Niles girl, Patricia Estudillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Estudillo of 325 School Street, won the first award in The Register's "Guess Where" contest last week.

Patricia, a student in the fifth grade at the Niles Elementary School, was late to class last Friday morning because she wanted to try her luck at phoning in her answer at the 9 a.m. opening hour of the contest.

She was the first to phone and identify the subject of the quiz picture as one of the lions located at the Veterans Honor Roll board in Centerville.

NILES WOMAN SECOND

Mrs. John McGowan, P. O. Box 202, Niles, was the second prize winner, by virtue of being the 20th person to telephone and correctly identify the picture. Mrs. McGowan's call came shortly before the noon hour.

The majority of Township Register readers, who have been enjoying playing the "Guess Where" contest, thought last week's picture was too easy. However, seven of the 40 persons who telephoned The Register prior to 4 p.m. Friday, failed to give the right answer. Several that failed to identify the location of the lion thought it was near the water temple at Sunol. Others said that it was on the grounds of one of the convents at Mission San Jose.

This week's picture puzzle we believe will be a real puzzler and challenges the best of the local sleuths. When you think you know what it is and where it is located, telephone The Register, Niles 3261 or 3271.

NAMES LISTED

The first 20 persons to correctly guess last week's picture,, in the order that the calls were received, were: Patricia Estudillo, Niles; John Franco, Niles; Mrs. Al Juhl, Niles; Mrs. Arthur Belshaw, Centerville; Barbara Davis, Niles; Mrs. Sam Cortez, Niles; Richard Brunelli, Centerville; Fred Duffie, Niles; Anthony Rogers, Mission San Jose; Bea Hudgel, Niles.

Harry Houston, Newark; Mrs. Bernard Vail, Centerville; Eva Mayer, Irvington; Manuel Swartz, Niles; Mrs. Dallas Paul, Centerville; Mrs. E. C. Parks, Niles; Beverly Bennett, Niles; Helen Bettencourt, Newark; Mrs. Tony Rivers, Centerville, and Mrs. John McGowan, Niles.

COUPLE LEAP INTO BAY AT DUMBARTON BRIDGE; RESCUED

A Castro Valley housewife and her husband were pulled from the chilly waters of the bay early Sunday morning after they had climaxed a quarrel by leaping from Dumbarton Bridge.

William H. Drabble, 40, and his wife, Thelma, 31, of 22197 Rizzo Avenue, Castro Valley, told sheriff's deputies that they stopped at the Dumbarton toll gate to settle an argument begun at a dance in Newark.

While C. G. Kellet, the toll keeper, looked on, Mrs. Drabble assertedly slapped her husband in the face then jumped from the car and leaped over the bridge railing. Drabble shed his coat and plunged in after his wife.

John Freitas Jr. of Newark and Jack Nuthall, a bridge attendant, manned a row boat and pulled the couple from the water.

They were taken by ambulance to San Mateo Community Hospital where several stitches were taken in Mrs. Drabble's chin and she was treated for shock. Drabble was released after treatment.

MRS. SILVA HEADS MOTHERS CLUB

The first fall meeting of the Alviso School Mothers Club was held Tuesday evening at the school auditorium with a new group of officers elected to head the organization during the coming year.

Officers, elected unanimously, who will be installed at the next meeting were: Mrs. Victor Silva, president; Mrs. James Nunes, vice-president; Mrs. Manuel Bettencourt, secretary; Mrs. Edward Fantuzzi, treasurer, and Mrs. J. V. Orsetti, publicity. Outgoing officers are: Mrs. Anthony Bettencourt, president; Mrs. Manuel Azevedo, vice-president; Mrs. Manuel Bettencourt, secretary, and Mrs. Victor Silva, treasurer.

The group discussed the Halloween party which they will sponsor for the school children on Friday evening, October 27. Mrs. J. V. Orsetti will be general chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Victor Silva, Mrs. Edward Fantuzzi, Mrs. Joseph Luiz, Mrs. Anthony Bettencourt, Mrs. Manuel Bettencourt, and Mrs. Joseph Dias.

Hostesses for Tuesday's meeting were Mrs. Frank Madruga, Mrs. John Dutra, Mrs. Edith Wasley, Mrs. Joseph Dias and Mrs. James Nunes.

The group expressed their thanks to the Alviso Community Chest Chairman Mrs. Ralph Logan and her committee, Mrs. Manuel Azevedo and Mrs. Victor Silva for their volunteer service to this worthy cause.

IRVINGTON CHAMBER TO HOLD NIGHT MEETING

The members of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce, at their luncheon meeting Tuesday at Roethlin's Cafe, voted to hold a night meeting on November 7.

President Allan Hirsch announced that dinner would be served promptly at 7:30 p.m. at Roethlin's and the business meeting would follow. Joe Rose was named as entertainment chairman.

The Chamber voted a contribution of $50 to the Irvington Boy Scout Troop for the splendid work the boys did in improving the community park.

Secretary Monford Krueger was instructed to contact county officials to determine the status of the work slated to be done on Vine and Roberts Avenue.

RITES SATURDAY FOR F. J. NEVIS

Frank Joseph Nevis, 44, well-known Newark barber, died early Wednesday morning in a San Jose hospital following a brief illness.

Mr. Nevis was a native of Decoto but had resided in Newark for the past 15 years, where he operated a barber shop.

He was the son of the late Manuel Nevis; husband of Mrs. Olive Nevis; father of Beverly and Mervin Nevis; brother of Clarence Nevis and Mrs. J. F. Martin of Stockton and Joseph Nevis of Oakland.

Funeral services will be held from the parlors of the Chapel of the Palms in Centerville at 9 a.m. Saturday, thence to St. Edwards Church, Newark, where a requiem mass will be said for the repose of his soul.

Interment will be at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

A. H. LEWIS, FORMER RESIDENT, SUCCUMBS

Graveside services were held at Holy Ghost Cemetery in Centerville on Monday for Anthony Homer Lewis, 76, former resident of Centerville who died Friday at his home in Santa Cruz.

He was the husband of Mrs. Mae Lewis; father of Mrs. Eleanor M. Machado, Santa Cruz, and Mrs. Mary F. Young of Sparks, Nevada.

He was a native of Centerville and a long-time resident there before moving to Santa Cruz. He was a member of the I.D.E.S. Council of Centerville and the U.P.E.C. Council of Santa Cruz.

Services were held at the Brenkwitz Mortuary and at the Holy Cross Church in Santa Cruz on Monday.

GIRL SCOUTS PREPARE FOR COURT OF AWARDS

The regular meeting of Centerville Girl Scout Troop No. 66 was held Monday at the Centerville school with President Tova Pedersen presiding.

The members of the troop spent the evening preparing their crafts and other requirements for their badge honors to be presented at the coming Court of Award.

A newcomer to the troop, soon to be invested, is Catherine Sweeney.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

"Thinking Things Over" is the name of this column. Therefore, in order to write it one, naturally, has to be able to think.

This week I have not been able to think. Those who follow the column will understand why, when I say that duck season opens today. I am beyond all thinking. It seems that ducks, in addition to quacking, also whistle. Their whistle is shrill, like a police whistle. And you know what they say about practice makes perfect.

If I live through the duck season, I may get back to my normal thinking processes again, in which case I will continue this column.

MRS. EMMA PIOLETTI CLAIMED BY DEATH

Funeral services will be held in Niles today (Friday) for Mrs. Emma V. Pioletti, 36, who died at her home here Tuesday following a lingering illness.

She was the wife of Joseph Pioletti; mother of Donald J. and Maxine Pioletti of Niles; daughter of Mrs. Mariana Bettencourt of Centerville; sister of Mary Vargas and Tony Bettencourt, Centerville, Mrs. Lena Brunelli, Niles, George and Fred Bettencourt of Centerville, and Joe and Ed Bettencourt of San Leandro. She was a native of Centerville.

Services will be held at the parlors of the Berge Mortuary Company, Niles, at 9 a.m., followed by a requiem mass at Corpus Christi Church at 9:30. Interment will be at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

ZONING MEETING POSTPONED TO NOV.

The public hearing, set tentatively for this month at Centerville for a discussion of the proposal to zone that community, has been postponed until November.

Chamber of Commerce members, sponsors of the proposal, were informed at their luncheon meeting Monday at Kleine's Cafe, that John Thomas, engineer for the Alameda County Planning Commission, would not be available to speak at such a meeting until next month.

PAST PRESIDENTS CLUB COMPLETES PROJECT

The Past Presidents' Club of St. Jude's Institute, Y.L.I., of Irvington, met last Thursday evening at the home of Jerry Feger of Mill Valley.

Esther Rogers, president, announced that the club's project to acquire a meeting place for religious traning classes had been completed. The classes will meet each Friday at Maple Hall in Irvington.

Mothers of the members of the club will be honored at a dinner to be held on November 13 at Lou's Village.

NEWARK News Notes

Little David Evan Lacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lacey of Mulberry Street, celebrated his fourth birthday on Wednesday, Oct. 11, with a lovely birthday party at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Freitas, of George Street.

The party room was gaily decorated in a Halloween theme and a huge black and orange cake was the center of attraction of the refreshments. Ice cream and other delicacies were also served. Those present were Debbie McNieve, Jill Kettman, David and Kathleen Freitas, Nancy Jean Kettman and Terry Kraft, all of Newark; and Alan and Diane Millan of Mt. View. The mothers of the guests who joined in on the fun were Mrs. John Freitas, Mrs. Lillian Kettman, Mrs. K. Kettman, Mrs. Esther Freitas and Mrs. H. B. Lacey, all of Newark; and Mrs. Elanor Millan of Mt. View.

RETURNS FROM L. A.

Howard Foley of Cherry Road returned recently from a week's vacation trip to Los Angeles.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown of Dairy Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silver family, Bill and Barbara Jean of Olive Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown of Dairy Avenue, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nixon and family of Hayward, last Wednesday evening.

NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Don Dias of Dairy Avenue have purchased a lovely new home on Magnolia Street in the Lindsay Tract.

WEEK-END GUEST

Mr. John Bernard Lacey of Alameda was a week-end guest at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lacey of Mulberry Street.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Newark Brownies will hold a rummage sale today and tomorrow, October 20 and 21, at the former jewelry store next to Bobbie's Ice Cream.

MOVE TO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and daughter have recently moved into their lovely new home on Birch Street. Moving to the former Lewis home on Railroad Avenue will be Mr. and Mrs. Joe Costa and child from Centerville.

SINCEREST SYMPATHY

Sincerest sympathy goes to the family of Mr. Frank Nevis of Dairy Avenue, who passed away suddenly early Wednesday morning. Mr. Nevis was a well known barber on Ash Street. He is survived by his wife, Ollie, a son Mervin, and a daughter Beverly.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A surprise bridal shower for Miss Beverly Nunes was held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at the Nunes residence on Thornton Avenue, with Elaine Fontes, Marlene Rocha and Florinda Lewis as hostesses.

Miss Nunes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nunes of Thornton Avenue, will become the bride of Norman Lema of Mulberry Street on November 5.

Delicious refreshments were served which included punch, sandwiches and a beautifully decorated cake. The inscription on the cake read "Congratulations, Beverly."

Those who attended to extend felicitations were Marlene Rocha, Elaine Fontes, Florinda Lewis, Jacque Martin, Barbara Gularte, Lorraine Gomes, Shirley Scarlett, Marjorie Reis, Margaret Williams, Elaine Dias, Marlene Pecks, Shirley Ennes, Carol Rogers, Nina Silva, Helen Fontes, Theresa Oliveira and Mrs. Bill Nunes.

Beverly received many very lovely gifts from those who attended and from the ones who were unable to attend. Among those were her grandmother, Mrs. Marie Enos, and Melvin and Calvan Enos.

MOTOR TO HANFORD

Your reporter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Larry Medeiros and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Medeiros, all of Mission San Jose, on a motor trip to Hanford and vicinity, last Saturday and Sunday. While there we visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lucio DeCampos and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Gomes and family in Hanford, then motored on to Mooney Park in Visalia where part of the group enjoyed boating on the lake. After spending the night in Fresno, we visited picturesque Fresno Park and Zoo on Sunday.

ILL

Betty Jean Silva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Silva of Elm Street, has been confined to her home due to a severe cold.

VISIT IN GUSTINE

Mr. Tony Silva and Alvin Silva of Elm Street spent last week-end in Gustine visiting Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Pavao and family. While there plans were made for a duck hunting expedition.

MASQUERADE BALL

The Newark S.P.R.S.I. No. 58 will hold its third annual Halloween masquerade ball at the Newark Pavilion on October 28. There will be many prizes for various costumes. The officers of the Newark S.P.R.S.I. are: Mary Silva, president; Mary L. Meneze, vice-president Sarah Mendez, secretary; and Mary Lotti, treasurer.

TWO NILES SCOUTS IN EAGLE RANK

Tom Champion, a World War II veteran, and Sandy Roeding, both of Niles, will receive the coveted Eagle rank at a Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held in Oakland in December, it was announced this week by Scout officials.

Champion is assistant Scoutmaster of Niles Trop 2 and earned most of the necessary merit badges for Eagle rank before he served with the Army overseas. His wife is an English war bride. The couple has a two-year-old daughter, Linda.

Roeding, also a member of Niles Troop 2, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roeding of Niles.

LUNCHEON, CARD PARTY IN NILES THURSDAY

The ladies of the Martha Sanford Circle of the Niles Congregational Church announced that they will hold a public luncheon and card party at the church on Thursday, October 26.

The luncheon will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m., followed by the card party at 2 p.m.

NEW CENTERVILLE SAFEWAY OPENS

An estimated 1,000 persons attended the formal opening festivities of the new Safeway supermarket at Centerville Wednesday evening.

Jack Coley, manager of the store, and R. W. Poor, district manager, served as hosts to the throng.

Manuel Lewis, Centerville postmaster, represented the Centerville Chamber of Commerce in giving an address of welcome to the store officials.

This big new supermarket on Fremont Avenue opened its doors for business yesterday.

TREES PLANTED BY NILES BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scout Troop 2 of Niles instituted a reforestration project at the Oakland Area Council's Rancho Los Muchos last week-end when they planted three Monterey pines.

Thomas Robbins, Scoutmaster, and members of the Niles Troop will continue to care for the trees and hope that other troops and posts will follow their lead in adding to the Scout Ranch trees that will grow there.

The first tree was designated the H. J. Beemis, the second the B. C. Cain, and the third the Don MacDougal. Mr. Bemiss is executive of the Oakland Area Council and has led the long improvement program for the Ranch; Cain is a veteran naturalist and assistant executive of the Boy Scout Council; MacDougal, district executive of the South District served as Los Mochos director for 3 years and is now director of camping for the Oakland Area Council.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

NEWLYWED NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McNemar have received word that their daughter, Arlene, who was recently married in Fresno, is now making her home in San Francisco, where her husband is employed. They are Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Cranor.

RETURN FROM GEORGIA

Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker and son, Melber, have returned from a month's vacation to Georgia where they visited his folks. The trip was wonderful with very pleasant weather and no car trouble.

WANTS TO RETURN

Mrs. Rose Recend's son, John Pat, who is employed in Sacramento, was home over the week-end and had as his guests, also from Sacramento, his cousin Freddie Howard and her friend, Ethel Soracco. John now has his own car, but sure wishes he could get a job around these parts so he could be here with his old pals.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

The Bottenbergs celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary this week and Rachael and Dan Hill also celebrated, but it was their fourteenth on the 14th of the month.

A BIG CROWD

Chet and Maude Holtz at the Mission Bell held their annual deer barbecue last Sunday at their place of business and what a crowd! Not only were all their friends present, but many who had stopped in the Mission for a while enjoyed the hospitality of the Holts' and partook of the luscious steaks.

RECOVERING

Mrs. Irene Huddleson is very happy now for her lovely dog, Riley, who was shot several weeks ago in the leg, is home from the Veterinarian Hospital and doing real good. He is being seen around his old haunts.

FROM BAKERSFIELD

Lee Goodwin of Bakersfield spent several weeks here at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ferne Jones, leaving on Saturday to return to his home in the south.

HAPPY GRANDPARENTS

Last week Cy and Lena Solon were very happy grandparents for little Holly Solon of San Francisco (and her mommie too) spent nearly a week here while their apartment was being redecorated. Sonny Solon, the daddy, had to go back to the grind of work-a-day so he only got to stay over the week-end.

TO BRENTWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rogers and their five children have left the Mission to go to Brentwood. He was the mechanic at the Fig Tree Garage owned by Bill Fernandez. This makes another big hole in our school attendance.

GUEST FROM LOOMIS

Miss Beverly Chambers entertained Mrs. Joe Lopez of Loomis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chambers, over the week-end, here in the Mission.

INSPIRING DAY

I'm sorry, folks, if you expect me to write an article fine enough to express the inspiring scene which took place at Holy Famly Convent on Sunday. I just can't do it for I never could say in words what feelings were seen in the faces of those who listened to the message for peace that Reverend John Leal delivered or how people felt at the dedication of the "Lady of Fatima." All I can say is that "I was there," and I know if all could heed and hear the message there would be less sorrow and destruction in the old world. It was one of the largest audiences we of the Mission have ever seen in our little town, and we know that all carried away their own little feelings and inspirations.

A SELL-OUT

The food sale given by the Catholic Daughters on Saturday was a sell-out almost before it began, for the lovely cakes and sweets went so fast they were through before noon with the sale.

EVERYBODY DANCES AT THIS DANCE

A girl can't say "No" to anyone who invites her to dance.

This may be rather an unusual ruling at a dance, but those of Mexican descent in Niles who are sponsoring it feel assured that the ruling will guarantee a good time for everybody who attends.

The affair, held in honor of the Mexican Saint Guadalupe, is being given for the purpose of collecting funds for the proposed new Catholic Church in Niles.

The dance will be held at Boliba's Hall in Niles, with dancing from 9 to 1 o'clock. Refreshments will be available.

FAMED MAGICIAN COMING TO NILES

Not the Great Herman, nor Keller, not Thurston, not Houdini played in as many auditoriums or before as many audiences a season as Grabel, the miraculous hoodwinker and magician who will appear at the Niles school auditorium on November 3.

Grabel, who does both sleight-of-hand tricks and also tricks of illusion, will give two performances here, one in the afternoon for the children, and another at 8 o'clock for the adults.

After witnessing Lee Grabel's Wonder Show, which was playing at the Plaza Theater, Palm Springs, California, Edgar Bergen, famous screen and radio star, said, "Some of the best magic I have ever encountered."

Admission to the show is 50 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children. It is being sponsored by the Niles P.T.A.

History shows that the press has been uniformly on the side of the common people.

ALL SET FOR GRAND NATIONAL

Thousands of visitors who are planning to attend nation's biggest combination livestock exposition, international championship rodeo, and million-dollar horse show, may now purchase reserved seat tickets in their own home towns. As service to out-of-town supporters, Grand National management has arranged with Pacific Greyhound Lines for all its ticket agents in West to serve also as seat salesmen for gigantic show. Shown here are Grand National Livestock Queen Joyce Brown (left) and Rodeo Queen Bette Sherwood receiving first batch of combination reserved seat and transportation tickets from M. C. Frailey, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines.

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR FARM WORKERS

Farmers need to keep records of payments to regularly employed farm workers during the present quarter, October to January, to know which employees will be subject to the Social Security program after January 1.

Regularly employed farm workers were brought into the Federal Old Age and Survivors' Insurance program by the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act. On January 1, 1951, farmers must begin Social Security deductions from wages payable to employees who were employed by them in the preceding quarter and who worked 60 days and earned $50 or more in cash during that quarter.

After January 1, a farmer with regular workers will need to keep a record of wages paid and Social Security deductions made. He should see that his employees subject to Social Security deduction have or obtain a Social Security number.

These are obtained by sending a completed "Application for Social Security Account Number" (form SS5 obtainable at any post office) to the nearest Social Security field office. The farmer himself should secure and file an "Employers" Application for Identification Number"

LILY PONS IN SAN JOSE SOON

Lily Pons, the greatest coloratura soprano since Jennie Lind, will sing in the civic auditorium, San Jose, on Thursday night of next week, October 26. Ralph Eichar will play flute obligato and Henry Holt will be accompanist. Miss Pons will include in her program the sensational "Bell" song from the opera "Lakme," in which she made her debut in France, when the name of Lily Pons skyrocketed to overnight fame. Since that time the petite French singer has been the leading coloratura soprano of the Paris, and a little later, of the Metropolitan and San Francisco Opera Companies.

Other numbers on the program include La Pastorella, Rossini-LaForge; Plaisir d'amour, Martini; Charmant papillon, Campra; Rose Cherie, Gretry-LaForge; Lo, here the gentle Lark; a des oiseaux, Hue; Songs of Grusia, Here Beauty Dwells, Rachmaninoff; Window Pane, To a Messenger, LaForge; Villanelle, Dell'Acqua; Air vif, Air Champetre, Poulenc; Romance, Nuit d'Etoile, Clair de lune, Debussy.

Following Lily Pons in San Jose will come Artur Rubenstein, world's greatest pianist, appearing in the civic auditorium there on Friday night, November 10. Tickets are on sale for both events at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

MARLENE MENDOZA WINS IRVINGTON FIRE DEPARTMENT'S ESSAY CONTEST

Editor's Note: Printed below is the prize-winning essay of Marlene Mendoza, seventh grade student at Irvington Elementary School. Marlene's essay won first prize in the school's contest sponsored by the Irvington Fire Department in observance of Fire Prevention Week.

HOW TO PREVENT FIRES

Every year in the United States thousands of acres of camping grounds, forests, and pasture lands are destroyed by fire. Insurance companies claim that ninety-five per cent of all fires could have been prevented.

To help prevent this senseless destruction one should not drop lighted matches or cigarettes. Children should never play with matches, because they are apt to burn themselves or start a serious fire. No one should smoke cigarettes or cigars in bed, for he or she may fall asleep with it still burning, which could ignite the bed-clothes, and result in their death, or at least the destruction of their home.

When we are camping we should never leave a fire unattended. We should always throw dirt and water over it until it is completely out.

At home when we throw ashes away we must place them in an incinerator. If we toss them in the yard they will likely start a fire if a breeze should fan the ashes into life.

Whenever we burn dry brush or grass we must make certain that the fire is at least fifty or sixty feet away from a building. If it isn't, the fire may spread to the building.

Everyone should have a screen on their exhaust pipe, especially when going through fields with dry grass, brush, or hay.

If we must clean our clothes at home we shouldn't use any inflamable liquids. To be absolutely safe we should send our clothes to the cleaners.

Never iron clothes that have just been washed with cleaning fluid. Wait until they are completely dry.

If one's clothes should catch on fire, that person should roll up in a rug or blanket. If they run the breeze will make the fire spread, and the person would be burned very seriously.

No one should ever lay electric wires under rugs. Everyone should replace electric wires when they become worn and frayed.

We should never leave a jar of water in the dry brush, grass, or hay field with the sun shining down on it.

No one should ever burn rubbish on a windy day, and when one does burn rubbish he should wet the ground near and around the fire.

Everyone should keep their attic and basement clean of trash.

Whenever one enters a service station they should turn off the motor and not smoke.

When a person is driving at night and develops motor trouble, he should never light a match to check the spark plugs, etc. A flashlight is far safer.

Never light a firecracker by a gasoline tank, hay, or dry grass. To be completely safe, no one should play with firecrackers at any time.

No one should ever light their stove with gasoline or any inflamable liquid. Everyone should use paper or wood.

One should never keep inflammable liquids in their homes.

Whenever one goes to the barn to feed the animals they should never take a lantern, because one of the animals may kick it and it would start a fire in the hay. A flashlight should be used.

When using candles be sure that they are in something that will not tumble over. Never leave them by a draft.

When melting fat to make lard, we should use a deep pot so that the fat won't splash all over and start a fire. If it should happen to catch on fire, never pour water into the pot. Instead, put a heavy lid over it. Doing this will smother the fire.

If one should ever smell gas in their home they should open all the windows and doors.

Whenever one gets through painting they should never wash their hands in gasoline.

If one is smoking in their car, they should use their ash trays,

If anyone has a hay field near the road they should plow around the fences so that if a person in a car should throw out a lighted match or cigarette it wouldn't burn the hay field.

No one should ever leave their iron on the ironing board when they leave the room. They should always disconnect the cord.

Never leave paint buckets open with rags in them.

Everyone should help prevent fires if they want camping grounds, forests, and pasture lands; if they don't want floods; and if they want to preserve their lives and happy homes.

Modern school cafeteria cookery will be the topic of the tenth institute for school lunch workers of Alameda County schools on Saturday, October 21, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., at Washington Union High School, Centerville. New, improved methods will be tried on the scene at the cooking school conducted during the morning by Mrs. Josephine P. Morris, supervisor of cafeterias in the San Jose schools.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Ethel S. Ward, director of curriculum for the Alameda County schools, who originated the institutes in 1945

The afternoon sessions will be spent in discussions on how to best meet state and federal school lunch requirements in meats, vegetables, and milk.

The Alameda County School Lunch committee operates under the chairmanship of Miss Evelyn Garcia, cafeteria coordinator and nutritionist for the Hayward Elementary School District. Local members of the committee are Miss Mary Shea, vice-principal of the Newark school, and Gus C. Robertson, district superintendent and principal of the Irvington school.

RECORD ENTRY LIST AT GRAND NATIONAL

An all-time record livestock list has been chalked up for the 1950 Grand National, it was announced this week by Porter Sesnon, president of the gigantic "Show of National Championships."

As the deadline on entries passed, 3,358 head of the country's finest beef and dairy cattle, sheep and swine had been entered in the nation's top animal classic which roars into San Francisco's Cow Palace October 27 for a ten-day run.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Oregon to Texas, the livestock entries will come to compete for $88,701 in cash premiums being offered in the livestock division alone. Total premiums for the exposition are $148,701 with $35,000 up for competition in the rodeo championships and $25,000 in the horse show.

Entries for the horse show and championship rodeo were still pouring into the Cow Palace yesterday. With later closing dates these entries will not be totaled until today.

The Boston Gazette, leading newspaper which espoused the cause of the American Revolution never had more than 2,000 circulation.

OLD AGE PENSIONS climbed from $40 to $75

Vote for EARL WARREN —a GOOD GOVERNOR

"I am positively and absolutely for old-age assistance. We raised it from $40, to $50, then to $60, $65, and now it's $75 with my support, because we can afford it. I wouldn't reduce pensions by one nickel. I believe in good pensions and I will never promise a pension that we cannot finance."

DAY BY DAY IN DECOTO

By GRACE CAMINADA

AT WHIST PARTY

Flora Silva, Mrs. Joe Carey and Marcella Rodrigues motored to Alvarado last Friday to attend the whist party being held there. All three came home with prizes. Also a winner was Mrs. Bessie Borghi who hardly returns home from any whist party empty-handed. Also present were Vivian Peixotto, Mrs. V. Dunne and Mary Cardoza, who brought home the booby prize.

AT THE WEDDING

There was a large crowd of relatives and friends from Decoto who attended the wedding Sunday when lovely Shirley Butler became the bride of Donald Andrade.

PINOCHLE CLUB

The Halloween motif was carried out in the table decorations last Saturday evening when Mrs. A. L. Costa was hostess to the Pinochle Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Watkins on Tenth Street. Twenty hands of cards were played. Mrs. Jim Parks won first, Mrs. Don Morgan second and Lester Watkins won low. Jello, cake and coffee were served the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Don Morgan of San Lorenzo, Mrs. Jim Parks, Mr. and Mrs. John Mara of Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Watkins, Mrs. Florence Wallace, Mrs. Clifford Dennis, guest, and the A. L. Costas. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mara.

NEW TELEVISION FANS

Mr. Joe Carey was presented a 16-inch table model television set this week by his children, Vernon Carey and Mrs. Gale Dias of Sunnyvale. Now Joe knows what he'll be doing on these cold nights.

BACK TO DECOTO

The Williams family, one time residents of Decoto, moved to Centerville for a short time but now have begun construction of their home on Tenth Street. Glad to see you are coming back to Decoto, folks.

AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carey attended a union convention at Jackson last Sunday. Mrs. Carey is secretary.

NEW CAR

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Azevedo are sporting a new 1950 gray sedan.

NEW PAINT JOB

I wonder if anyone has noticed the paint job being done on one of our business houses on Tenth Street. Yes, "Cam" is finally getting around to painting his barber shop.

NEED HELP

Mrs. Frank Margarido is asking for help with Girl Scouts here in the district of Decoto. This position, so-called a neighborhood chairman, can be filled by anyone, no special training being required. Also adult help is being asked to assist with the adults already in scout work. I sincerely hope many will answer this call. I feel as Mrs. Margarido does, it's a worthwhile cause.

ON HOSPITAL SHIP

John Garcia of Fourteenth St., has received word that his son, Tommy, is on a hospital ship transporting the wounded from Korea to Guam. John's other son, Johnnie, who has just celebrated his seventeenth birthday, has enlisted in the Navy also and is in San Diego for training.

BIRTHDAY WISHES

Birthday wishes to Sally Muniz who celebrates her birthday today, the 20th.

IN RESERVES

The recent veterans of World War II who have joined the many others from here that are in the National Guard Reserves, are: Donald Hitchen, Joe Delgado, Chris Hernandez and Louie Pagan.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Although an Irishman, Father Duggan, assistant at the Holy Rosary Church, has reached many old timers who, until recently, did not attend Sunday mass because they could not speak English. Father Duggan, who does remarkably well with his Spanish, has difficulty once in a while with a few words but he succeeds in having a large attendance both at the 8:30 mass for the English speaking people and at 10 a.m. for the Spanish.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carey gave a birthday dinner for their daughter, Dale Dias of Sunnyvale, whose birthday fell on Columbus Day, the 12th. Also present were Dale's husband and son, Bobbie.

SKATING PARTY

Mrs. Frank Margarido and her Girl Scout Troop No. 3 had a monthly birthday celebration at the skating rink in Niles Saturday.

FROM HOLLYWOOD

The Rinaldo Caminadas recently were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Arlindis of Hollywood, who are here for a short vacation.

CAR-TRUCK CRASH

Lawrence Roderick of 414 Tenth Street was slightly injured on the Centerville-Alvarado road Monday evening when his car was struck from the rear by a truck, driving Lawrence's car into another in front of him. He said he was stopped for a train when the truck hit him. The truck, driver from Tracy, was cited by the highway patrol for driving at an unsafe speed.

FISHING TRIP

Tony Janeiro spent last weekend at Stockton fishing with his brother, Dave. Tony was only lucky to come home with one 14-inch bass. Oh, well, there'll be that many more to catch on the next trip.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mrs. Concepcion Orozco of 605 Sixth Street received a telegram from the War Department that her grandson, Corporal Ernest P. Orozco, who was with the Marine Second Division in Korea, had been wounded in action.. He is now stationed in a naval hospital somewhere in Japan. The telegram was soon followed by a letter from Ernie saying he had been shot in the arm and a leg. He had been living here for some time with his grandmother and was a student at W.U.H.S. He has been in the Marines for 2½ years and was stationed at Okinawa and Hawaii. While in Okinawa he was a member of the Marine football team and participated in a game at the Rock Bowl. Ernie is thus far the first wounded reported in the Korean War from Decoto.

OFF TO THE EAST

Mr. and Mrs. Sloan (the former Antoinette Delgado) of Fifteenth Street are leaving for a business and pleasure trip back east and will return home with a new car. Have a nice time, folks.

BASED AT LONG BEACH

James Catlin, who is now a Master Sergeant in the Army Air Force, is stationed at Long Beach. He was in the active air reserves since he was discharged from duty in World War II. Jim was a truck driver before he was recalled to the service.

LOST THE GAME

Last week the Decoto school football team played against the Bret Harte team of Hayward and last with the score of 14 to 0. The boys lost but shouldn't feel discouraged as they played a hard game. They previously won the game with Valle Vista. Wednesday the team played Alviso.

The Associated Press first used typewriters in 1885.

NILES CITY CLEANERS
161 I STREET — NILES

Alone for the first time in a city...and no one to meet her. Then teen-age Jane, nearly in tears, saw a telephone.

THE DAY JANE DAWSON NEEDED A FRIEND
(And found Telephone Operator 11)

1. One of the first calls Operator 11 handled that quiet Sunday was from a public telephone in Union Station. "I missed my train connection and I've just got to reach my brother Mike," said a small voice. "He's with the Navy in Port City but I don't know how to call him." Operator 11 had heard such voices before. And as she said, "We'll find him," she was ringing an operator forty miles away.

2. Didn't take Mike long to reach his sister after he'd been paged at the Port City station where he was nervously waiting. After he'd picked her up, Jane said, "That operator was so understanding. I don't know what I would have done." And later on her mother thanked Operator 11 in a letter to us which ended..."and I'd like to pin a medal on her. I'll never meet that operator. But she is our friend."

3. An unusual story? Not at all. We get many letters telling how our operators do their best to get the call through...no matter what. And we hear good reports about our linemen, installers, service representatives and others who meet the public directly. We like to receive these letters. For they tell us that you recognize "the spirit of service"... so much a part of telephone work... so important in making your telephone ever more valuable to you.

Here's to Your Health

By DR. JAMES C. MALCOLM
Health Officer, Alameda County Health Department

Have you ever been sitting on a stool at a lunch counter, when the Health Department sanitarian came in to check the health conditions of the shop? Perhaps you wondered why he checked the temperature of the rinse water for the glasses, or why he looked in the refrigerator. Many serious communicable diseases can spread through food and water, so the supervisors in our county have provided funds for the employment of trained sanitarians to check water and food supplies, and make recommendations to improve health.

If you are acquainted with the sanitarians, you will know that they are young men who have had special college training in sanitation and disease control. They have learned to recognize the danger spots in a restaurant, drug store, or cafeteria. They know that certain methods of washing dishes, or rinsing glasses kill the bacteria which might spread disease. They check the handwashing facilities for restaurant employees because they know that adequate handwashing is important in stopping spread of disease "from hands to food." They check refrigeration because they know that harmful bacteria can grow in food not stored properly or at the right temperature. They also keep an eye out for evidence of rats, since rats, too, can spread disease. When necessary they may help the manager to get rid of the rats.

Restaurant owners and managers are anxious to protect the health of their customers, so the sanitarian finds that most of the time the enforcing of the State Restaurant Act is actually done through education. They appreciate suggestions from sanitarians on scientific, healthful methods of operations.

Alvarado Couple Married 55 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Gomes of Alvarado had a red-letter day on their calendar on October 14. It marked the observance of their 55th wedding anniversary.

In honor of the occasion, Mrs. Connie Maciel, their daughter, had a family turkey dinner at her home in Hayward, which was attended by the couple's three daughters and three sons and their families.

During the afternoon on "open house" was held, and the couple's host of friends in this area called to pay their respects to the happily wedded pair, who were married in Centerville in 1895. Mrs. Gomes was born in the township. Mr. Gomes came to this country at an early age, having been born in Fayal, the Azores, 82 years ago.

They received a most heartwarming collection of gifts.

Visitor from Texas

A house guest at the home of Whitney Evans of Niles is Mr. Evans' mother, Mrs. Cora Evans, whose home is in Beaumont, Texas. She arrived here two weeks ago, and is enjoying her visit very much. She expects to return to Texas after the Christmas holiday.

Twins' Birthday

Jean and Joan, four-year-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson of Decoto, celebrated their birthdays last Saturday at a party at their home. Those present were their cousin, Kathy Merrill, and "Skippy" Bodily, Darrell Watkins, and Donna Soito.

Beverly Bennett Is Betrothed

Another local couple has joined the ranks of the to-be-weds, with the announcement this week that Beverley Bennett, daughter of Mrs. Amy Rouse of Berkeley, is engaged to Tom Cardenas, son of Joe Cardenas of Niles.

Both are graduates of Washington High, she with the class of '46 and he with the class of '47. He is presently employed at the Bank of America in Centerville, although he is expecting to be called into the service within the next three weeks.

Miss Bennett is employed as a bookkeeper at Kimber's.

Marriage plans are indefinite, although they expect to be married as soon as he is assigned to some base.

Walter Blake to Wed Hayward Girl

Another surprise engagement announcement, with the wedding announcement being made almost simultaneously, comes this week from the Walter Blakes of Centerville, whose son, Walter Jr., will be married to Rita Kabrach of Hayward on October 29.

Walter, as is his father, is with the telephone company, working out of Walnut Creek. His bride-to-be, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Kabrach of Hayward, is employed in the Bank of America at Hayward.

The setting for the wedding will be the Eden Congregational Church. The couple plan to make their home in Walnut Creek.

Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bain Leask of Fremont Avenue celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Wednesday, October 18. In honor of the occasion they dined across the bay on the peninsula. Mr. Leask—carrying out the silver anniversary theme—presented his wife with a roll of silver dollars.

Localites Win Wine Award in Los Angeles

Mrs. Ann Mayock and her son, Douglas, were in Los Angeles this week where they attended a meeting of the Los Angeles Wine and Food Society at the Stuft Shirt Restaurant.

The reason for their presence there was the fact that they have been awarded the Cordon Bleu for the finest domestic wine served to the members of the Wine and Food Society during the year 1950.

Unfortunately, because it was a stag affair, Mrs. Mayock was unable to attend the dinner. Douglas, however, enjoyed fully the five-hour repast.

The menu included such delicacies as Pate de Fois Gras, Maine Lobster, Filet Mignon, and imported cheeses, each course being served with the appropriate wine. The Mayocks' Los Amigos Cabernet, 1943, was served with the salad and Gorgonzola cheese.

Irvington Couple Have Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weilheimer of Irvington were the honored guests at a family reception celebrating their golden wedding anniversary, on Saturday, October 14.

Relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Alfred Hirsch where two beautifully decorated cakes were cut and served with refreshments.

Mrs. Weilheimer, as Lillie Hirsch, was born in Irvington and after her marriage went to Mountain View where her husband was in business. When Mr. Weilheimer retired in 1915, they returned to live in the family home here.

Stork Shower for Niles Woman

Mrs. Lionel Goularte of Niles was the guest of honor at a stork shower given for her Wednesday evening by members of Klatawa Council, Pocahontas. The affair was held at Boliba Hall.

Decorations featured a stork centerpiece, with stork nut cups and favors. A large cake, decorated in pink and blue, was lettered with, "Welcome Little Stranger."

Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served to the guests. The guest of honor received many gifts.

Sugar 'n Spice

Mr. and Mrs. John Cortner of Centerville are proudly announcing the birth of their first child, a daughter, born at Peralta Hospital on Friday, October 13. The baby has been named Lisa Ann. She weighed 9 pounds and 5 ounces at birth.

NILES COUPLE TELL OF INTERESTING TRIP BY PLANE TO VISIT RELATIVES IN LONDON

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lovell Scott of Niles returned home this week after a 17-day jaunt across the United States and the Atlantic Ocean to London, very much enthused over their trip but claiming that they were "glad to be home."

"I think it was the food over there that caused us to get a little tired. There isn't enough meat, nor enough of the other nourishing foods." He went on to say, however, that there was really enough to eat in England, if you weren't too particular. Meat was rationed—about one chop or the equivalent thereof per person per week is the rule—and eggs are also still very scarce.

"I didn't realize that the Londoners could tell we were strangers," said Mr. Scott, "until the first afternoon we were there we went out strolling on the streets, and noticed that people were regarding us curiously. They seemed to know at a glance that we were foreigners. I think it was our shoes they noticed. (It's difficult to get good shoes in England.) I believe also," went on Mr. Scott, "that they noticed my felt hat. The hats over there have a much narrower brim than ours do here. For that reason, I suspect, they stared curiously at my hat."

The Scotts made themselves very popular instantly with their relatives over there by producing several packages of meat they had brought over with them. "I don't think we could have brought anything that would have been more welcomed than those steaks and roasts we gave them."

One of the most interesting experiences the Scotts had while in London was in visiting a former classmate of Mr. Scott's of the Abbotsholme School. The classmate, Sir Stanley Unwin, was delighted that the Scotts had looked him up, and the two reminisced over their old school days. Sir Stanley has gained national prominence in the book-publishing field, and for that reason, and also for being so active in the war, he was knighted.

The Scotts came home loaded with gifts they received from relatives, among which is a pair of silver candlesticks that had been in the family for several hundred years.

The two things that impressed them most about London was the courtesy of the motorists, and the absolute spotlessness of not only London but of the whole English countryside. "There were no papers blowing around, no filth of any kind. London was really the cleanest city I have seen," concluded Mr. Scott.

The couple made the trip by plane.

BARBARA WILLIAMS TO BECOME BRIDE THIS SUNDAY AT ST. CLEMENT'S CHURCH

This Sunday at four o'clock, Miss Barbara Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams of Irvington, will become the bride of Mr. Kenneth Morrissey at a ceremony to be performed at St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Berkeley.

After the wedding a reception will be held at the Century Club, and the young couple will leave on a week's honeymoon, to return to make their home in Sacramento. They will live there only a short time, however, as Mr. Morrissey, an engineer with the Continental Can Company, is being transferred to the bay area.

For her maid of honor, Barbara has chosen her sister, Rachael. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Robert Lindauer, a classmate of Barbara's when she attended the University of California, and Jean Rogers, formerly of Newark.

Philip Morrissey will be his brother's best man.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Washington Union High School and of the University of California, has been employed as a secretary to Judge Young.

Mr. Morrissey, also a graduate of the University of California, was an aviator during the war.

The wedding ceremony will be performed by the Rev. J. Henry Thomas.

Meets the President

According to a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ferrante of Niles, their son, Lt. (jg) John Ferrante was on the staff to greet President Truman when he arrived in the Pacific last week.

Lt. Ferrante's wife, Joy, has just returned to their home in Hawaii with their two-year-old daughter, Jane, after visiting for two months with her parents in Australia.

Proud Grandmother

Mrs. Bea Fournier, one of Niles' proud grandmothers, reports that she gets regular play-by-play descriptions via the mails on the doings of her new grandchild, young William Kent Ogard. William was born on August 21 to Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Ogard of Seattle. Mrs. Ogard is the former Marjorie Jackson of Niles. Her husband is a junior accountant in Seattle.

Niles Business Man Married in Carson City

Surprising his friends in Niles, Jerry Sletten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sletten and manager of Sletten's department store here, eloped to Carson City, Nevada, last Monday, and he and his bride, the former Mary Ciacco of Gilroy, are now touring Southern California on a two weeks' honeymoon.

The couple met several months ago in Gilroy, where the Slettens also have a department store. The new Mrs. Sletten is the daughter of Mrs. Gaspar Ciacco of Gilroy. Accompanying the couple to Carson City were the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gaspar.

When they return from their honeymoon they will take up residence in one of the Brahmst apartments in Niles.

Her Fourth Birthday

Little Patricia Ann McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan of Niles, celebrated her fourth birthday at a party at her home on Friday the thirteenth.

Those who had fun at her party —which had the Halloween motif as decoations—were Linda and Bobby Cunha, Lorelei Estudillo, Denice Wallman, Bobby and Susan Tuana, Sherry Payton, Carol Quartaroli, Janie Mellow, David and Kathy Freitas, Denny and Sharon Franco, Ira and Linette Stinhilver, Frankie Correia, and Lorna and Randy Grundy. There were also several out-of-town guests present.

At Richardson Springs

Mrs. Marian Pine and Mrs. Adeline Faria have returned home to Niles after a very pleasant week spent at Richardson's Springs. They made the trip on the California Zephyr, getting on the train at Niles and getting off at Marysville. "But we should have gone on to Oroville," said Mrs. Pine. "It would have been easier to get to the Springs." She went on to say what a wonderful trip they hand on the train.

Recovering

Mrs. Anita Harding of the Niles-Mission Highway is recuperating this week from a recent heart attack. She has been confined to her bed for most of the week.

Guests from Chico

Dinner guests of the Roland Bendels next Sunday will be Mrs. Bendel's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Handley, of Chico.

In North Dakota

Mrs. Al Jergentz of Niles, who has been visiting in Farwell, North Dakota, for the past three weeks, is expected to return home next Tuesday.

Mrs. Rose Orocchi is at home recuperating — and doing very nicely—after a five-day sojourn in Alameda Hospital.

MOTORIST ESCAPES IN CROSSING CRASH

Donald Faria, 18, R.F.D. Box 492, Niles, narrowly escaped death last Wednesday evening when his automobile stalled on the Southern Pacific railroad tracks in Centerville and was demolished by a freight train.

Faria got off work at the Booth Cannery in Centerville about 10:30 p.m. and had trouble starting his car, an early model Oldsmobile. With the help of a friend he got it started but as he pulled off of Baine Avenue onto the tracks at the crossing on Main Street the machine stalled.

Faria jumped from the machine moments before it was struck and demolished by the freight train.

CENTERVILLE STORE IN NEW LOCATION

The Gilstrap 5c-10c and Up Store will open in its new location in Centerville on Wednesday.

The beautiful new modern store is now located at 134 Main Street, directly across the street from its former location.

C. H. Gilstrap, owner, opened his five and dime store in Centerville 17 years ago and said this week, "Our opening Wednesday represents the fulfillment of years of planning and hoping to bring Washington Township one of the most modern and attractive stores in the entire Eastbay area."

The front of the new remodeled building is all glass with flagstone flower boxes beneath. The Gilstrap 5 and 10 o'clock, long a trade mark for the store, has been moved to its new location over the doorway.

George Hinkley, manager of the store for the past six years, said this week that the new store will have approximately 500 feet more of floor space than the former quarters.

Included in the opening day festivities will be free toys and lollypops for the youngsters and chances for adults on merchandise orders.

"The welcome mat is out and we hope to see all of our friends at our opening," said Mr. Gilstrap, or, as he is more commonly known, "Gilly."

BENEFIT SHOW FOR SUNRISE SCHOOL

A chrysanthemum show for the benefit of the Sunrise School for Spastic Children will be held this Saturday and Sunday, October 21 and 22, at Papp's Motors Inc. show room at 101 Castro Street, Hayward. The show is being sponsored by the Farm and Home Department.

The show will open on Saturday at one o'clock and close at 9 p.m.; and on Sunday will open at 10 a.m. and close at 9 p.m.

Tea and cookies will be served during the afternoon.

According to local publicity chairman, Adeline R. Santos of Centerville, all proceeds will go towards the benefit of the handicapped children.

The public is invited to attend.

LOCAL GRIDSTERS WIN PAIR; MEET BELLS TONIGHT

The Washington High football squads scored comparatively easy wins over Campbell in their double-header S.C.V.A.L. clash on the home field last Friday evening.

In the curtain-raiser Coach Irving Hird's Puppies ran unchecked over their opponents to win 52 to 13. Attempts by Coach Hird to "call off the dogs" by using every man on the Washington bench, failed to slow the tempo of the Puppies, as they continued to roll over their opponents.

Coco Rivera continued his fine performance of previous games with sensational long runs and passes to Bolivia and Martinez.

The victory marked the third straight win for the Puppies, having downed San Francisco Poly and Santa Clara in that order.

The Washington Huskies got off to a slow start but got rolling in the second half to chalk up a 20 to 6 victory.

The Huskie defense was ragged in some spots but tightened for two outstanding goal-line stands.

PASS COMBINE CLICKS

The first quarter saw the two teams see-sawing back and forth across the field, mostly in Washington territory, but unable to assemble a scoring drive.

THREE OUT OF LINE-UP

Coaches Jud Taylor and Clyde Voorhees said yesterday that the Huskies will be weakened considerably in tonight's game against Bellarmine with three members of the starting eleven on the sidelines.

Spence, first-string center, and Duarte, first-string tackle, will be ineligible for action tonight because of scholastic difficulties. Sabe Elizarrey, breakaway artist in the Huskie backfield, injured his knee in the Campbell game and has been unable to don a uniform all week.

In the opening minutes of the second quarter Pagan flipped a 30-yard pass to Silveira on the Campbell 40. Two plays later Pagan tossed to Cicairos in the open on the 20-yard stripe and the little halfback scooted into the end zone for the first score of the game. Salvador's boot was good for the extra point.

The Buccaneers fought their way to the three-yard line but the center of the Huskie line dug in and held for three plays until the half-time gun sounded.

The Buccaneers gained possession of the pigskin early in the second half and marched down the field to score. Big Jack Bribes blocked the Buc try for extra point and Washington led 7 to 6.

ELIZARREY HITS STRIDE

Cicairos returned the following kickoff from his own 15 to the Campbell 40-yard line. Elizarrey scooted around his own left end to the 15, Cicairos went to the 6 and Elizarrey went over standing up to score on the fourth play following the kickoff. Salvador's kick failed to split the uprights.

In the closing minutes of the final quarter Elizarrey dashed 70 yards to the Campbell 10. Ferraris fought his way to the 1-foot line and Bribes crashed over for the final score of the game. Salvador kicked the extra point for the final 20-6 score.

Outstanding defensive performances were turned in by Zeisse, right end, Leal, halfback, and Spence, center.

Tonight the Washington squads will meet the powerful Bellarmine squads from San Jose in a non-conference double-header on the home field. The curtain-raiser gets under way at 6 p.m. and the varsity clash at 8:15.

The Boston Tea Party was planned in the back room of the Boston Gazette.

WESLEY GORDON GIVES TALK HERE

"Our Own Back Yard," dealing with the gravel pits of Irvington, was the subject of a talk given last night (Thursday) by Wesley Gordon before members of the Washington Township Historical Society.

Mr. Gordon, former Niles resident and pastor of the Congregational Church here, now lives in Hayward and has achieved considerable national fame for his unearthing and identification of fossils in the Irvington pits.

Assisting him in the program was his wife who sang several Indian songs, in keeping with the subject of the evening, as most of the fossils and bone remains are of Indian extraction.

HYDRANT SQUABBLE TO TOWNSHIP C. C.

The controversy between the Newark Chamber of Commerce and the Alameda County Water District, over the type of hydrants to be installed along Thornton Avenue, is to be submitted to the Township Chamber of Commerce for a study and recommendation.

At Tuesday evening's meeting of the Newark Chamber, Secretary Howard Buschke read a letter from the water district reaffirming their stand that they will either install wharf-type hydrants or nothing. The Chamber, backing the ruling of the Newark Fire District that no rental will be paid on any new hydrants unless they are standard type, asked that the Township Chamber take up the matter.

Gene Manning, executive secretary of the Township Chamber, was a guest at the meeting and assured the group that the matter would be brought up for discussion at the next meeting on October 25.

It was pointed out that a new post office building is soon to be constructed and will leave the present post office building vacant. The Chamber voted to renew its effort to have a bank opened in the community in the building which now houses the post office.

The members voted a $10 contribution to the Community Chest Campaign.

LOCAL FARM CENTER RETAINS OFFICERS

The past year's staff of officers of the Washington-Eden Farm Center was re-elected to serve another term at the monthly meeting of the organization held Tuesday evening at Washington Union High School.

The officers who were retained for the second term are: Richard Johnson, chairman; Bruno Orsetti, vice-chairman, and Earl Wallace, secretary. The board of directors will be elected at next month's meeting.

Edwin Williams, field representative for the Social Security Administration, was the guest speaker of the evening. He outlined the new social security plan whereby farm workers are included in its coverage. He told the group that he would be available for any information on the new plan each Friday between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Employment Office in Hayward.

Chairman Johnson announced to the group that they would be hosts to the annual Alameda County Farm Bureau banquet on November 8 at the cafeteria at the high school. Manuel Abreu is general chairman in charge of arrangements and Lester Gomes is entertainment chairman.

Louis Rozzani, vice-president of the California Farm Bureau Federation, will be the guest speaker.

Johnson announced that 250 tickets would be available and reservations must be made with officers of the Farm Centers by November 1.

CARD PARTY FOR NILES NOVEMBER 30

The Niles P.T.A. is sponsoring a public card party to be held on the evening of November 30 at the Niles school auditorium. The public is invited to participate.

MARLENE MENDOZA WINS ESSAY AWARD

A seventh grade student, Marlene Mendoza, was declared the winner of the Irvington Fire Department's essay contest on fire prevention at the Irvington school on Wednesday.

Marlene's essay on "Ho wto Prevent Fires" was declared the best from a field of 108 essays submitted by the students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Irvington school. Judges for the contest were Fire Chief Fred Rogers and Assistant Fire Chief Frank Madruga, Centerville, and Chief Joseph Pashote of Newark.

Patsy Pereira, sixth grade student, was declared second-place winner and she and Marlene were each presented with trophies by Fire Chief Alfred Peixoto of Irvington. Third-place winner was Tony Kitong, eighth grader.

Chief Peixoto served as master of ceremonies at the special assembly at the school Wednesday and Edw. L. Rose, a member of the volunteer fire department, gave a brief talk. He announced that the department plans to make the essay contest an annual affair in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week.

Marlene's essay appears on page four of this issue.

ARTS SECTION TO TALK ABOUT MEXICO

The Arts Appreciation Section of the Country Club will hold its regular monthly meeting next Wednesday, October 25, at the home of its chairman, Mrs. Dora Mae Scudder.

Mrs. Roland Bendel will have charge of the program for the evening, reviewing two books, "Village in the Sun" and "House in the Sun," both by Chandos. The books deal with life in Mexico. Carrying out the Mexican theme, Mrs. John Whipple will also give a short talk on current events in Mexico.

California Almond Harvest

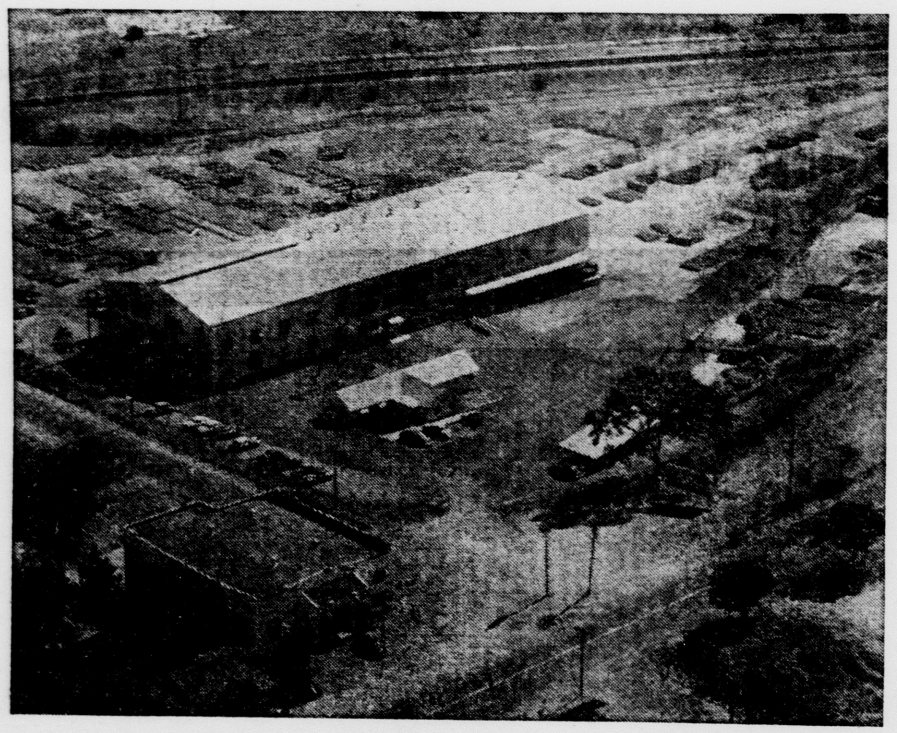
Mass Production Aim—Almonds Drop Into Modern Industry

By BARBARA DE NIKE

The almond—one of California's almost exclusive crops—is rapidly becoming a mass-production industry in the coastal range foothills at Paso Robles.

Row on row of trees now dots the hillsides surrounding the picturesque Salinas Valley community, attracting thousands of tourists during the blossoming season in late February and March.

But the beauty of the blossoms is only a minor phase of the almond industry of Paso Robles where the California Almond Orchard, Inc., is one of the state's firms that is graduating the crop out of the paperbag stage into big business.



Aerial View of Mammoth Modern Almond Processing Plant in Paso Robles.

Nation-wide Market

One of the prime movers in the industry, the company puts out its almonds in a blue can, carrying the label of "Blossom Acres," and sees that they are marketed all over the nation.

So now Salinas Valley almonds are not only sold at roadside stands, of which there are plenty in the Paso Robles area, but are becoming a common, traditional item on the nation's market shelf along with other California nuts.

Getting out of the luxury bracket, too, the almond is becoming universally accepted by the housewife as a customary goodie, not too rich for the family's weekly budget.

Although nearly all of the almonds grown in the United States are harvested in California, a lot of this acreage is in San Luis Obispo county, giving the company a tremendous source of supply.

Other large almond acreages are located at various points in the state, including huge growths at Banning and Antelope Valley. At Lancaster, civic center for Antelope Valley, they even have an annual almond festival in March.

Almond Industry

The history of the almond industry in Paso Robles began in the 1920's when the Slate Almond Company, predecessor to the now California Almond Orchards, Inc., was started by Frank P. Slate and his son, L. L. Slate.

The Slates, father and son, as founders of the parent company, still wield the biggest influence on the Paso Robles almond industry by serving as chairman of the board of directors and president, respectively, of the present corporation.

At first, it was a major job of developing the crop on the part of the Slates that established the foundation for the present lucrative industry.

Research Data

They started by the methodical task of gathering research data on the growing of almonds. Naturally, this led to the preparation of the harvest and the packaging of the almond for market by the Slate company.

Now, almond by-products are being put to work, too. The company is experimenting with using hulls and shells, which normally are thrown away, as a component of stock feed.

In the development of the almond industry in Paso Robles, many old-time ideas of planting were discarded by the Slate organization. Where formerly 70 trees were planted to the acre, now better production has been obtained by planting only 50 trees.

Early plantings were on peach root, but now grafts on almond root stock are found to produce more consistent crops.

Diversification Abandoned

Diversification of hard and soft shell varieties considered essential for many years has now been abandoned for this area and the entire planting is devoted to the more easily handled soft shell, or paper shell, variety.

Experiments with by-products has developed the use of almond hulls as a component of stock feed. All hulls are now being scientifically blended with other materials to furnish a complete cattle food.

Commercially feasible uses for almond shells have not yet been achieved. Work has been done toward manufacturing them into pressed board and road-making materials.

Market Harvest

To achieve preparation of harvest for market and attractive packaging, a custom-designed plant was built by California Almond Orchards in 1947.

At the plant the incoming tonnage is put into large receiving hoppers. Mechanical conveyors transfer the nuts to a dehydrator.

Excess moisture must be removed to facilitate hulling and to assure proper storage without deterioration.

A belt elevator carries the nuts from the dehydrator to the hulling machine. After hulls are removed the tonnage is size-graded and the grades put through cracking rolls.

The mixture of nut meats and shells goes to the cleaner, where shakers and air blasts eliminate all but a small part of the shell fragments.

Remove Culls

Women employes in an extensive inspection department remove all culls, shell particles, and other foreign material, then specially-trained women inspectors give a thorough final sorting and checking.

Screens of rotary grading equipment sort the nutmeats which are packed in specially prepared liners inside 100-pound burlap sacks. The sacks are then moved on for packaging or placed in storage.

Roasted almonds are packed in vacuum cans carrying the brand "Blossom Acres" for retail distribution. Wholesale markets are supplied with roasted almonds put up in wax-lined cartons.

Providing an important item in international commerce, the almond industry is a flourishing component of California's expanding industrial scene.

WHAT PEOPLE WILL DO:

Harry S. Truman will push the price-control powers to the limit, even limiting the fee that a doctor, lawyer or dentist can charge! This will arouse a storm of protest from all professional men! . . . Irving Berlin, the song writer, theatrical producer and publisher, will form his own television company. . . . The Charles Conrad Bill which permits the soldier to vote in home elections easily, minus the red tape, will be adopted nationally next year. Mr. Conrad is a California state senator. . . . Three members of the Farmer's Union will quietly resign due to proven Communist connections. . . . One of our aging magazine and movie writers will have his passport cancelled due to moral reasons. . . . The Duke and Duchess of Windsor will appear in a French movie for charity. . . . Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will soon take a South American vacation after his November victory in the New York elections. . . . George Metcalfe, the music maker of the famed Sky Room, will soon introduce a new musical game to be played in the home. . . . Paul Whiteman will appear as himself in a radio serial based on his career. . . . Your newspaper will be voted to be the best daily informant of world events above the radio, newsreel or television. . . . "Daily Variety" the Bible of Show Business, will soon have a new format, and will be marketed to appeal to the general public. . . . The late Casper Reardon, known as the "Swing Harpist," will have all of his recordings re-issued on the anniversary of the 10th year of his death. . . . A new color film for home camera use will soon be on the market and will sell for the same price as the black and white. . . . Winston Churchill should watch his health!

Criswell Answers

Q.—Will I get a teaching position this fall?—Mrs. S. B., Barstow.

A.—Yes. You will also sell your land by the first of the year.

Q.—Will I get my ordination certificate?—Mrs. V. B., Oakland.

A. —Yes, it will come through for you within six weeks.

Q.—What is the best business step to take? Should I marry now?—W.L.H., Arcadia.

A.—You will work more closely with builders and real estate men. Yes.

Q.—Will we continue living on our small acreage?—Mrs. Anna J., Centerville.

A.—For the time being, but you will sell it after the first of the year. Your husband will do well in business for himself. Your granddaughter will teach dancing and also dance professionally.

Q.—Will there be a change for the better for me?—M.M.R., Ceaderville.

A.—Yes, by Nov. 17. You will also move into a new house, and travel.

Q.—Should I continue with this man who has my mining property?—S.L.S., Blythe.

A.—Give him a certain amount of time to make good, and then make your change. You will close another deal before too long. There is inner dissention.

Q.—Should we let her mother have this 7-year-old girl? Should we buy another house? Are my pains imaginary?—Mrs. J.C.S., Citrus Heights.

A.—You will leave this girl in school until her mother can take her. You will move and sell your home and buy income property. See a doctor, but there is nothing too serious. You have stood quite a bit.

Q.—What about our son? Will we settle in Missouri?—Mrs. J.F.B., Arcadia.

A.—He will find work in a non-union print shop and later have a business of his own. He will make you proud of him. You will sell out soon and return to Missouri and set up there. You will first make a scouting trip.

Q.—Will my doctor get well enough again to reopen his office?—Mrs. L.LaR., Fortune.

A.—Yes, in two months. You will find your little gold cross in your home.

Q.—Should I open up in town or out of town?—Mrs. M.C., Sonora.

A.—In town, and you will find a good location. Your son will be a successful teacher, and later try politics. This new friend is very enchanted with you.

Q.—Should we hold on to this land for investment?—Mabel B., Sonora.

A.—You will be able to sell it and get land with a clear title. You will keep your business for the time being but sell to someone from the East next year. The offer to lease it will not be too satisfactory.

Q.—Was the excuse given my jilted daughter the truth? Should we continue paying taxes on an old farm in Arkansas?—Mr. and Mrs. S.H., South Pasadena.

A.—Yes, it was quite unsavory all around. Yes, for you will want to visit and live there for one summer, as a change. You will rent it out to someone very trustworthy.

Q: Will I sell the place? Should we move? We lost so much on our chicken deal. My son can only work for himself, as when he works for others he gets sick or hurt. There is no peace in our house. Anna C. Vacaville.

A: I do not sense you selling the place at the present time, but I do know you will sell it next year. In the mean time I know that you will all take a trip and it will be more or less scouting for a new location, which you will take next year. Your son is very independent and the idea of working for others reacts on his nervous condition. He will be very successful before too long in some type of sales work where he is his own boss. You worry too much over others. You will be pleasantly surprised by some visitors.

Time for Roast Duck

With the duck season at hand and nimrods among friends and in the family it is time for housewives to study up on recipes for the preparation and cooking of wild ducks. There are many methods but listed here are some of the favorite ways:

To pluck wild duck remove large feathers dry. Then prepare the following mixture: Three-eighths pound paraffin, 7 quarts boiling water.

Melt paraffin in water. Dip duck in and out of boiling mixture 4 or 5 times or until paraffin has coated feathers. Cool duck to let paraffin harden, then strip off feathers and paraffin at the same time. Singe and remove any remaining pin-feathers.

Cut heads and feet from birds, remove entrails and wash with cold salt water. Dry thoroughly. Ducks shot in the fall after a summer in the northern feeding grounds generally have fine-flavored meat. Any stuffing may be used. Ducks sometimes may be found to have strong-flavored meat which may be improved by soaking the cleaned birds two to three hours in fairly strong salt water to which a tablespoonful of baking soda has been added. The duck should then be rinsed, dried and stuffed with sliced apple or celery. The stuffing helps to absorb the strong flavor and should be removed before serving the duck.

Ducks must not be overcooked, or the meat will be dry and crumbly. Roast uncovered in slow oven (325 degrees F.) ¾ to 1½ hours. Brush frequently with fat while roasting.

Pan Roasted Wild Duck

Wrap bird in cloth dipped in melted fat. Place in roaster, breast down. Roast uncovered in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) allowing 20 minutes per pound. Turn breast up when about half done. Baste frequently. Remove duck from oven when tender. Unwrap cloth.

Braised Mallard Ducks

Dress the mallards; stuff with a bread, apple, nut and egg stuffing; truss and place in a covered roaster. Add water to the depth of 1 inch, a slice of onion and a small amount of thyme. Cover roaster and cook in a slow oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour, remove cover so bird will brown and cook another 30 minutes. Use only enough water to prevent burning. Make gravy from the juices and pour over ducks.

Wild Duck With Pecan Stuffing

4 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 cut finely chopped onion
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup pecan meats, chopped
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk, scalded
2 eggs, beaten
2 (2½-lb.) wild ducks
6 slices bacon
1 cup tomato catsup
¼ cup Worcestershire sauce
½ cup A-1 sauce
½ cup chili sauce

Mix bread crumbs, celery, onions, raisins, nuts and salt together. Add hot milk to the beaten eggs and then add to dry mixture. Dress ducks and fill with stuffing. Close the slits by using poultry pins or by sewing. Place in roaster and cover each duck with 3 strips of bacon. Roast uncovered in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) allowing 15 to 20 minutes per pound. Twenty minutes before serving time, combine the last four ingredients and baste the ducks with the sauce. Garnish with parsley and slices of oranges with a few candied cranberries in center of each slice. Skim the fat from the sauce and serve the sauce with ducks. Salt pork may be used in place of bacon. Serves 4 to 6.

And now for the tame variety of duck, should your family not rate a hunter to bring home the wild ones. Duck casserole with wine never fails to bring forth the compliments. To make good use of every bit of the duck, place neck, giblets, wing tips, backbone, skin and fat in sauce pan with 3 cups water and ½ teaspoon salt. Cover tightly and cook over moderate heat about 45 minutes, or until tender. Drain off broth. Let fat rise and pour it off. Use broth and giblets, plus meat from bones for soup. Use fat for baking.

Duck casserole with wine can be a stellar attraction on any table. The recipe is listed.

Duck Casserole With Wine

1 Long Island duckling, 5 to 6 lbs., dressed weight
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
2 tablespoons fat
12 small white onions, peeled
½ clove garlic, minced
3 tablespoons flour
1½ cups Californa claret or any red table wine
1 (3-oz.) can sliced broiled mushrooms
3 sprigs parsley, chopped
1 teaspoon salt

Remove skin and fat from duck. Cut duck in serving-sized pieces. Brush pieces with kitchen bouquet. Melt fat in frying pan. Brown pieces of duck in fat over moderate heat, about 10 minutes. Remove duck to 9-inch casserole. Add onions. Add garlic to fat in frying pan and cook over moderate heat 1 minute. Stir in flour. Add wine, contents of can of mushrooms, parsley and salt. Bring to boil, stirring constantly until sauce thickens. Pour sauce over duck and onions. Cover tightly and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until duck and onions are tender, about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Serve hot with cooked rice. Yield: Four to 6 servings.

Savory Duck Pie

1 5-6-lb. duck, dressed weight
3 cups water
2 teaspoons salt
1 3-oz. can sliced broiled mushrooms
1 6-oz. can tomato paste
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
¼ teaspoon powdered marjoram
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon sugar
1 cup cooked small white onions
½ recipe pastry

Have meat dealer cut duck in quarters. Wash and place duck, together with giblets and neck, in Dutch oven or large sauce-pan with tight-fitting cover. Add water and salt. Cover and cook over moderate heat until duck is tender, about 45 minutes. Let duck cool in broth about 30 minutes. Pour off broth. Allow fat to rise and pour it off. Cut duck in large pieces, discarding skin. Place contents of can of mushrooms in sauce-pan with 2 cups broth. Stir in tomato paste, kitchen bouquet and seasonings. Bring to boil over moderate heat. Add duck meat and onions. Heat thoroughly. Place in shallow greased baking dish, about 10x 6x2 inches. Roll out pastry to fit top of baking dish. Cut small vents to allow escape of steam. Bake pie in hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 25 minutes, or until pastry is lightly browned. Yield: Four to 6 servings.

Tomato-Olive Is New Taste in Aspic Salad

Here's a good Olive Aspic Salad you can make well in advance of when you want to serve it. Meaty ripe olives and crisp celery add pleasing flavor and texture contrast to the tomato aspic. Mold it in individual ring molds and then serve it with cubed avocado in the center to make it particularly festive.

OLIVE ASPIC SALAD

1½ cups tomato juice
½ cup water
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup shopped ripe olives
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon salt
Shredded salad greens
Cubed avocado
French dressing or mayonnaise.

Combine tomato juice and water and heat to just below boiling point. Dissolve gelatin in hot liquid. Chill until thick but not firm. Blend in celery, olives, lemon juice and salt. Pour into six individual ring molds. Chill until firm. Unmold onto salad greens. Fill centers with avocado cubes. Serve with preferred dressing.

Waxed Paper Cone Used for Designs

To make unusual mayonnaise designs on lettuce, tomatoes, salads, etc., use a cone made of waxed paper, fill with mayonnaise, fold the cone shut at top, open the point a little and squeeze mayonnaise out. Designs of any desired type can be made, with no waste, no utensils to wash.

Diced Ham, Eggs Make Casserole Dish

Diced ham mixed with diced hard-cooked eggs and cream sauce may be turned into a casserole, topped with tiny squares of buttered bread, and baked in a moderate oven until thoroughly hot and the topping is lightly browned.

Green Limas, Sliced Celery Combine Well

Green lima beans and thinly sliced celery makes a good combination when they are cooked and served buttered. Or they may be cooked, drained and chilled, then served with French dressing on salad greens.

Camellias!

Pampered Queen of Flowers

By ALFRED AMES
Magazine California
Garden Editor

From Oregon to the Mexican border California garden lovers are carefully watching the rapidly swelling flower buds of Camellia Japonica, queen of winter.

Indeed, in some gardens Daikagura, Lady Clare, Pink Perfection, and Aloha have already made their curtsy. From now until next April those Californians who have been smitten by this gal should be treated with the utmost consideration! Look, the Southern California Camellia Society devotes about 50 pages of fine print just to catalogue her name, type, and color—what a gal!

FIRST BLOOM—Mrs. Lawrence Weill of Bakersfield is seen admiring the Variegated Daikagura variety of the Camellia flower in its first bloom. The beautiful flower was grown at the Bakersfield home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pomeroy,

Like many another queen, Camellia is often misunderstood, pampered, and spoiled, but knowing her structure, plain horse sense should tell us, "average gardeners," what will make her happy. Let's begin at the bottom.

First, a cutting-grown camellia is supported on a very delicate pillow of feeder roots that won't stand scalding by concentrated fertilizer or alkali. Neither will they support masses of heavy soil in careless transplanting. If, when irrigating, you wash several inches of sand or soil over this pillow of fine roots, she just rounding her bed, that mass of fine roots rapidly spreads and your camellias are soon the number one objective of garden club tours.

In order to maintain her beauty over the years reasonable attention should be given her diet. If you are a modern and prefer to feed from a can or bottle, fine, if you follow the directions on the label. If you use manure, be sure it is old and try mixing a couple of pounds of soil sulphur to each wheelbarrow load. Use this as light mulch and spread it during the growing season.

Seldom Bothered

Camellia is seldom bothered by pests. Perhaps the worst is that one who spades the entire garden thoroughly and so often. Actually his activity can be very beneficial if reasonably directed. Here is how it should be done (in my opinion):

1. Dig a deep trench between your camellias and any nearby trees or heavy shrubs.

2. Rest in the shade of the camellias and pull any weeds growing through the mulch.

3. Cut every tree root in the trench.

4. Rest again and look for rose beetles, loopers (measuring worms) and grasshoppers. Oh, yes, squash 'em!

5. Refill trench.

After this a shower is a good idea. It also helps keep down aphis on new growth.

It has been said that a "green thumb" develops only in an atmosphere saturated with patience. If you feel the urge to grow camellias you will eventually find that good judgment sneaks in somewhere, too.

Let's take this matter of irrigation. One of the questions most frequently asked is "How often shall I water my camellias?" The amount of watering necessary in Kern county is probably many times that needed by a plant in the Humboldt Bay area.

Yet the camellia grows well in both areas.

Weekly Flooding

A weekly flooding in Bakersfield might well be the equivalent of an occasional sprinkling in Eureka. KEEP YOUR CAMELLIAS MOIST. There also seems to be a greater tolerance for poor conditions in some varieties. For instance, in Santa Ana on East First Street there is a beautiful 70-year-old specimen, 18 feet high with a spread of 20 feet and trunk circumference of 44 inches.

This "tree" is in full sun the year 'round and is situated in the middle of a lawn, it is a semi-double of rather deep pink shade. This bloomin' beauty, well past the half century has many older, larger, beautiful sisters throughout the state.

Pink Perfection

Perhaps the most beautiful and best known (in my opinion), is a Pink Perfection that grew in the yard of the bus station in Arcata, Humboldt county, 25 years ago. This glorious lady has since been moved to Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, and doubtless still retains the beauty of former years. Perfection, indeed!

The present growing interest in camellias is really well rooted. Such popular varieties as Purity, Warratah, Pink Perfection, and Tricolor were planted as long as 90 years ago in California. That's a long time in anybody's garden!

New Tulip Culture Calls for Planting Bulbs Deeper

Tall Late Tulips, Planted Deeply, Will Bloom for Many Years.

Among the old garden maxims which have become obsolete is the one about the depth of planting seeds and bulbs. "Four times the diameter of the seed or bulb," it said.

Of course larger seeds and bulbs usually go deeper than small ones, but there are exceptions, and the "four times" formula may be definitely misleading, especially in fall planting.

A big problem for those who live where the ground freezes deeply in winter, is frost heaving. During thaws, there is always danger that bulbs too near the surface may be lifted entirely out of the ground by alternate expansion and contraction of the soil.

Any bulb you plant should be set sufficiently deep to escape this frost action. For this, three inches of soil above the bulb is a minimum. Even snowdrops and scillas are in danger, and the later a bulb is planted in the fall, the greater the danger. If planted early enough to develop roots before the freeze-up, the roots will anchor it. Cover all late plantings with a mulch after the ground freezes to shade the ground and prevent thawing prematurely.

When tulips are to be dug up each summer, they need not be planted as deeply as when they are left in the ground for several years. The reason here is that when planted with 4 to 5 inches of soil above them, they will multiply, developing small bulbs which will bear inferior flowers until they grow up, and then will crowd. If not lifted and replanted this crowding will usually cause the bulbs to die out.

When bulbs are to be left in the ground for several years, plant them with 10 inches of soil above them, and they will not multiply, but all the energy of each one will be devoted to developing a single new bulb, which should bear a normal flower the following year. Tulips set among other plants cannot be dug yearly without disturbing their neighbors, so should be set deeply and allowed to stay as long as they continue to bloom.

Vote for A GOOD GOVERNOR

EARL WARREN

LET'S NOT BE CAUGHT NAPPING!

You want progress! You want work, security and opportunity for your children. You want care for the needy . . . a truly humane administration . . . a wise handling of your tax moneys in a pay-as-you-go government. And now, with urgent need for civilian defense against a possible enemy attack you want a governor who is competent to handle the situation, come what may.

Let's not be caught napping. Strong, richly financed political pressure groups are working hard on schemes and dreams to offset Earl Warren's overwhelming majority in the primary election and force our government into unqualified hands. Vote for Earl Warren, a good governor.

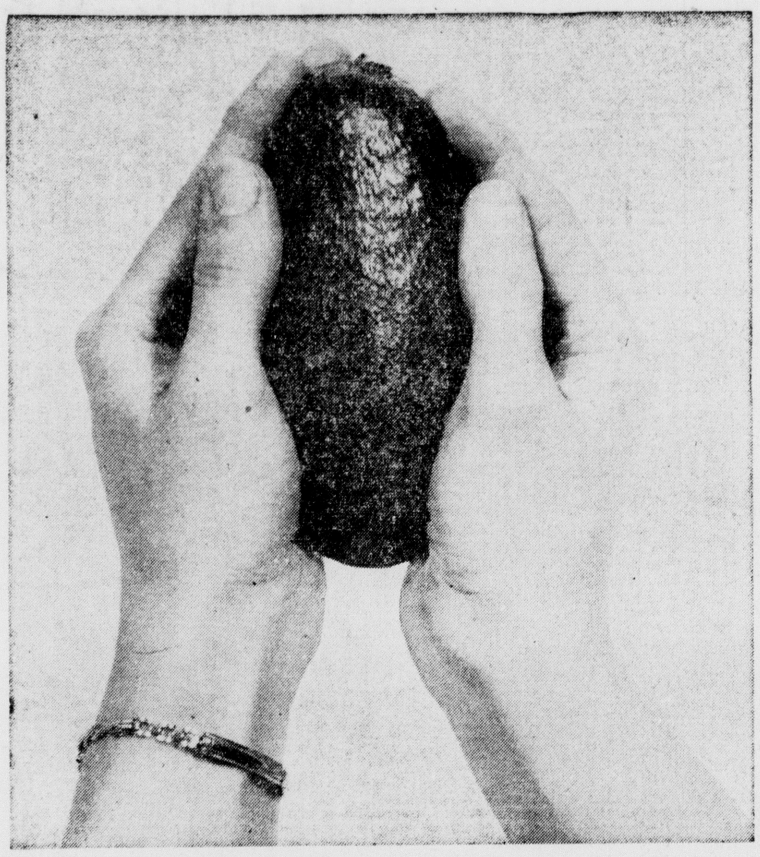
Avocados---Food Heritage from the Aztecs



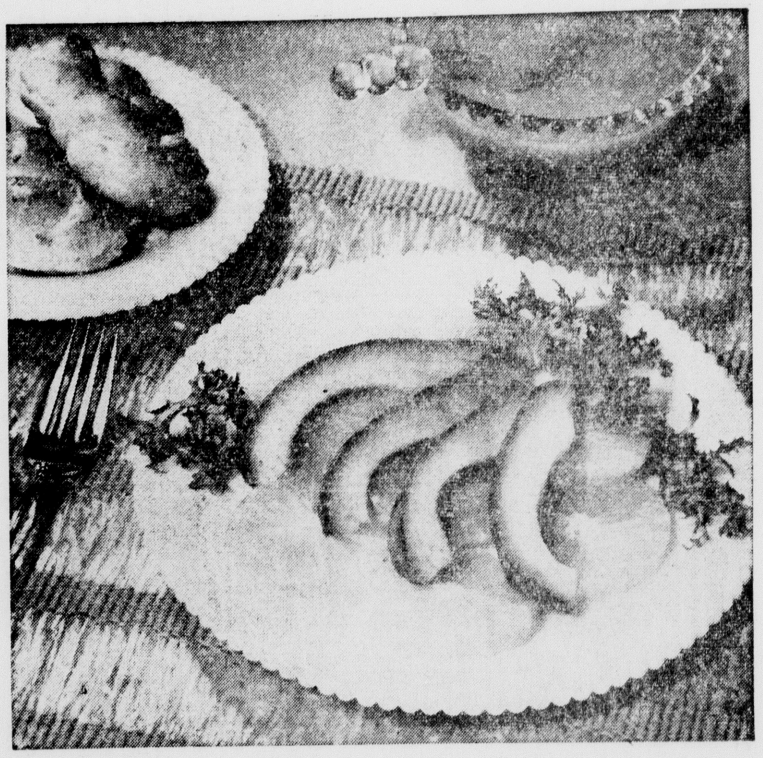
A ripe avocado is an epicurean treat. Test for ripeness is made by pressing lightly between palms. Fruit should "give," feel soft.

Butter-soft, vitamin-rich food of ancient Incas, avocados have come to the Southland as a rich heritage, a delight known long before white men came to the New World. The avocado has risen to an important place in the dietary scheme of modern Americans, as it was in the time of the ancients and has assumed proportions of a major food industry. Today there are about 18,000 acres of avocados planted from Santa Barbara southward to Mexican border.

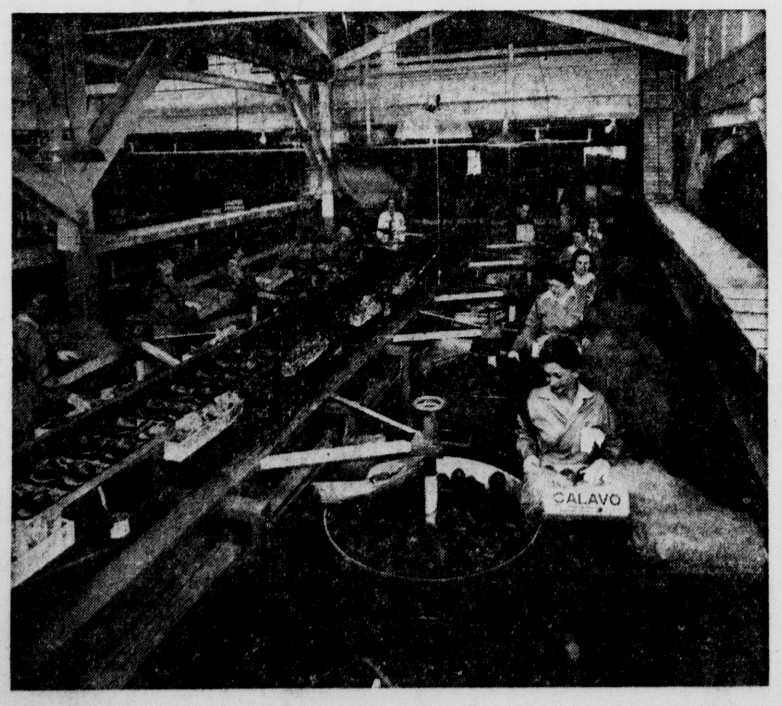
Harvesting of avocados calls for care and skill. Each stem must be trimmed off close to the fruit to prevent bruising of other fruit when avocados are placed in the boxes used by pickers.

Avocado growing and marketing has become a big-time industry in the Southland. Here, skilled graders sort fruit in packing house.

Here is a branch on a heavy-producing tree in Lester Williams' grove in Orange County.



Delicious however it may be served, avocado is especially popular when sliced with orange or grapefruit and served as salad course.



Calavo is widely-known name in avocado market. Fruit, stamped with name, is sized automatically and distributed for packing.

Dating back at least four centuries, its history covering two continents, a fruit that was a strange treat to the Spaniards in their conquest of the New World is now a staple in U. S. food marts. It is avocado, or "ahucatl" as the Aztecs called it. Mexicans, Central Americans and South Americans left picture writing telling of avocados in ancient days. Records of the Mayans of Guatemala, dating back to 261 B. C., listed the avocado as "on" and the Inca dynasty left the name of "palta" in Peru, and this name still persists in some parts of South America. Mexico called it "aguacate" or alligator pear, an unpoetic name which is fast losing popular favor. Cortez and his soldiers discovered the Aztec reference to the fruit and first written accounts of this vitamin-high food come to us in the accounts of a Spanish explorer, Fernandez de Enciso, who wrote: "It is like butter and is of marvelous flavor, so good and pleasing to the palate that it is a marvelous thing." Ancients likened fruit to pears.
